Sensational Kids host information evening on speech/language therapy tips

By Kim O'Leary

Sensational Kids is hosting an information evening for parents and teachers to share speech and language therapy tips and information next Wednesday, 24 October from 7-8pm in Kildare Town.

Senior Speech & Language Therapist Sarah Gorman will give an overview of clients that Speech and Language Therapists work with, and the benefits of speech and language intervention as well as the red flags for speech and language delay and when to refer for speech therapy.

The talk will also provide tips and ideas for promoting language development in young children. This talk will be of particular interest to parents who have concerns about their child's speech and language development who are not already
